Learning Teaching Training Activity

Learning teaching training activity of MEDUS project is organized in Konya, Türkiye between October 2023. The event was hosted by Turkish project partners Çeşitlilik İçinde Birlikte Derneği (CEBDER). 16 participants were present during the mobility. The aims of the LTT are to preparation of teacher trainers to work with the material developed under the 4 outputs to ensure the sustainability of the project results after the project ends and to evaluate the quality and content of the training material on the Moodle platform. The mobility was very fruitful with several activities including theoretical presentations, practical activities, discussions, visits to different types of organisations, evaluations and cultural activities. Overall, the mobility was very fruitful, and all participants gained valuable knowledge and skills from this LTT experience.

Learning Moodle Platform

LTT started with learning how to use the Moodle platform. Gytis from Kaunas University of Technology has presented how to sign up for the platform, how to enrol the courses and how to fill out the evaluation at the end of each module.

Testing the Modules and Evaluation

Each partner has prepared a theoretical presentation and a practical activity for their modules. We have started with Module 1 on Monday. Dan Hera from Romanian partner has presented his module and practical activity. All participants joined the practical tasks, Each module, except module 3, has practical activity and participants tested the practical tasks by doing the real activity on the module. At the end of the modules participants filled the evaluation form of the module.

Organization Visits

After the training activities partners visited a lower secondary school, the Provincial Directorate of National Education and Public Education centre in the afternoons. With these visits, participants have learned these organizations deal with the integration of migrants into schools, lifelong learning and social life. At the same time, they have also learnt good practices and educational actions in the province

Future Planning and Cultural Activities

The LTT event was finalised with planning the last transnational project meeting in Lithuania, planning the next tasks, discussing the evaluations of modules, testing results from LAG group training and meeting finalized with some cultural activities such as city tour, museum visits and whirling dervishes ceremony and giving certificates & Europasses.
